

1. What is the purpose of an experiment?

2. Define culture:

3. Why must culture be considered when studying psychology?

4. Why must gender be considered when studying psychology?

5. Why must we also remember that men and women are very similar when studying psychology?

6. Why do many psychologists choose to study animals instead of humans?

7. Do you feel it is unethical to study animals? Why or why not?

8. In studying people, what four principles should be followed according to the A.P.A?

9. What is positive psychology?