

Go to mregedy.org
-move the mouse over Current Courses and click on 6th Grade
-scroll down to Unit 1
-click on Web Literacy Activity
-click on the following links

<http://www.thedogisland.com/>

1. Purpose – What is the information trying to accomplish? Was it created to promote or sell a product or service?
2. Author – What is this person’s professional background? What else have they published?
3. Place – What is the information’s relationship with the rest of the web (links, address, other sites that link to it)
4. Do you trust this site? Why or why not?

<http://www.ancientegypt.co.uk/menu.html>

1. Purpose – What is the information trying to accomplish? Was it created to promote or sell a product or service?
2. Author – What is this person’s professional background? What else have they published?
3. Place – What is the information’s relationship with the rest of the web (links, address, other sites that link to it)
4. Do you trust this site? Why or why not?

Go to mregedy.org
-move the mouse over Current Courses and click on 6th Grade
-scroll down to Unit 1
-click on Web Literacy Activity
-click on the following links

<http://zapatopi.net/treeoctopus/>

1. Purpose – What is the information trying to accomplish? Was it created to promote or sell a product or service?
2. Author – What is this person’s professional background? What else have they published?
3. Place – What is the information’s relationship with the rest of the web (links, address, other sites that link to it)
4. Do you trust this site? Why or why not?

<http://www.reed.edu/humanities/110Tech/Parthenon.html>

1. Purpose – What is the information trying to accomplish? Was it created to promote or sell a product or service?
2. Author – What is this person’s professional background? What else have they published?
3. Place – What is the information’s relationship with the rest of the web (links, address, other sites that link to it)
4. Do you trust this site? Why or why not?