

C1. How did Charlemagne create a new system of organizing society?

C2. When Europe's last strong governments fell, what new role did nobles play?

C3. What was feudalism?

C4. What is a vassal?

C5. What is a fief?

C6. What was a knight's job?

X7. How did the invention of the stirrup change a knight's fighting style?

E8. How was feudalism in Europe and Japan similar?

C9. What is a manor?

C10. What is a serf? Give a description of the life of a serf.

C11. What 4 major changes took place in agriculture?

C12. What is chivalry? (be specific with the expectations)

X13. Describe castle life.

X14. What is a Catholic feast day?

X15. Describe the roles of women in Medieval farm life.

C16. When Rome collapsed, why did things pretty much stop functioning?

X17. What happened to cities like Venice and Flanders?

C18. Describe the system of buying and selling things during the Middle Ages.

C19. Who was in charge of governing cities?

C20. What is a guild? How did they set standards?

C21. What is an apprentice?

C22. What is a journeyman?

X23. How does a journeyman become a master?

C24. Describe the living conditions in medieval cities.

X25. How were the lives of city women different than farm women?