

Pgs. 271-273

E1. How did Rome's definition of a dictator and our modern day definition of a dictator differ?

C2. Who was Cincinnatus and what did he do?

E3. How did Cincinnatus influence George Washington?

C4. What was Rome's first code of laws?

X5. Why was important to have a recorded set of laws?

X6. What did the 12 Tables establish?

X7. Even though there was the 12 Tables, why was establishing the Law of Nations important?

C8. What does the "Rule of Law" mean?

E9. How would the Romans view our legal system?